NEWTOWNE

BILLERICA • CAMBRIDGE

grille

In 1966, Socrates Touloupoulos opened the doors of Newtowne Grille located at 1945 Massachusetts Ave in Porter Square, Cambridge. The name originates from when the cities of Cambridge and Newton were originally a part of what was called "the new towne." Newtowne Grille in Cambridge remains a landmark and continues to serve as a truly unique experience within the city. We as a family have opened our second location and strive to provide the same unique and personal experience that our Grandfather set forth. As did Socrates', we continue to ensure that each guest is treated like family, enjoys a good meal at a reasonable price and most importantly has a great time under our roof.
